

University of London, UK Programmes

Psychology

Duration

3 years

Fee Structure

UoL - £ 5725 (Full programme)
RIC – INR 300,000 (1st year)
INR 210,000 per year (2nd and 3rd years)

Entry Requirements

Route 1 - Direct Entry:

- Applicant's age must be 17+ by the registration deadline of the enrolment session
- Three UK GCE A-levels at grade DDE or an acceptable equivalent; and one of these A-levels must be obtained in Mathematics, Psychology or Biology at grade A – D
- UK GCSE Mathematics grade A – C / 9 – 4 or equivalent
- A minimum of Credit pass (C pass) for English at Ordinary Level Examination or equivalent
- Pass the internal Admission Test and interview

Route 2 - Performance Based:

- Applicant's age must be 18+ by the registration deadline of the enrolment session
- Have passed at least six separate subjects at GCSE or GCE O level or equivalent; and one of these GCSEs must be obtained in Mathematics, at grade A – C/9 – 4 or equivalent
- To be admitted onto the full BSc programme, the applicant must pass two required modules with an overall result of 40% or above, with at least 40% in each element of assessment.
- Pass the internal Admission Test and interview

Route 3 - International Foundation Programme (IFP):

- Have completed the IFP
- One of the courses taken as part of the IFP should be Mathematics and Statistics [FP0001], which should be passed with a mark of at least 60%
- Pass the internal Admission Test and interview

Jobs Opportunities Available Globally

• Industrial Psychologist • Organizational Psychologist • Counsellor • Health Psychologist • Child Psychologist • Counselling Psychologist
• Clinical Psychologist • Forensic Psychologist • Crisis Counsellor • Marriage Counsellor • Family and Marriage Therapist • Rehabilitation Counselor

*Please note the UoL fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5-7% per annum.